

The First International Conference on the Measurement and Economic Analysis of Regional Tourism

Donostia - San Sebastian (Spain), 27-28 October 2009

TRAVEL: GETTING TO DONOSTIA-SAN SEBASTIAN

The conference will take place in Donostia-San Sebastian, a traditional tourist destination famous for its three beautiful sandy beaches set amidst lush green hillsides. San Sebastian is a popular city in Europe, offering unique shopping experiences, outdoor recreation activities, cultural heritage tours and an exciting night life, all situated in or around the historical yet modern city centre.

By Air

- San Sebastian Airport (EAS) is the closet airport to the city of San Sebastian (20 km) offering daily direct flights to most major Spanish cities serviced by Iberia airlines.
- Bilbao Airport (BIO/LEEB) is 1 hour (100 km) away from San Sebastian and offers direct flights from all major European cities.
- Biarritz Parme International Airport (BIQ) is located just northeast of San Sebastian (60 km) in the French Basque Country and is also served by several major airline carriers.
- Other airports: Pamplona \(PNA\) at 90 km and Vitoria \(VIT\) at 120 km.

By Train

Please consult the Spanish National Train service RENFE (horarios.renfe.es) and the Basque Euskotren (euskotren.es).

Guests coming from Paris may have the option of arriving in Hendaya (French border city) by way of the TGV (tgv.com).

Taxi transfer

Taxis are available outside Airport main terminals at all hours.

Approximate one-way rates from*:

- San Sebastian Airport: €30
